

Brandon Hearne

COMMERCIAL LINES ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE

Brandon Hearne is an account executive for the commercial lines department at our Salisbury office. He joined Avery Hall in November of 2019.

His favorite part about his job is seeing the joy and excitement when you can help a business owner. Even the smallest things such as getting back to them in a timely manner can make their day. Brandon loves that he can leave work each day feeling good and knowing that he is doing something great for his clients and prospects.

Professionally, Brandon earned his CLCS (Commercial Lines Coverage Specialist) designation from the Hartford School of Insurance.

Brandon's favorite charities are the Alzheimer's Association and the Wounded Warrior Project. He has also volunteered his time to coach Little League and travel baseball for the youth in his community.

In his free time, Brandon enjoys boating, fishing, going to the beach, and woodworking with his father. He strongly believes in treating others with the utmost respect and maintaining strong relationships with friends and family.

He and his wife, Madison, have been married for two years and love spending time with their two golden retrievers. They also enjoy being Uncle and Aunt to their nephew.

A fun fact about Brandon is he has always loved sports. His favorite quote is from football legend Vince Lombardi, "Winning isn't everything, but wanting to is." He also enjoys rooting for the Duke Blue Devils basketball team!
